LETTER FROM RICHARD

Dear friends,

It's the day after the House of Commons have just voted to support the Government's decision to cut the overseas aid budget from 0.7% to 0.5%, citing the impact of Covid as the reason. 0.2% doesn't sound much, except that governments deal in big numbers, so that 0.2% amounts to £4 billion.

This morning at Morning Prayer, the New Testament reading came from Paul's Second Letter to the church in Corinth, in which Paul is urging the Corinthians to give generously to a collection for the distressed Christians in Jerusalem, citing the generosity of the Macedonian churches, who, "during a severe ordeal of affliction" have nevertheless, from "their abundant joy and extreme poverty... overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part." Paul goes on to say, "They voluntarily gave according to their means, and even beyond their means." (2 Corinthians 8. 2-3)

At the conclusion of this reading, Hazel and I, almost as one, commented that we found ourselves comparing that with what had happened in the Commons the day before. And lest some of you may be tempted to stop reading at this point because you don't believe in mixing religion and politics, let me say that much of what Jesus did was political, for he frequently challenged the religious leaders of the day, as, for example, in overturning the tables of the money changers and animal sellers in the Temple, accusing them of turning God's house into a "den of thieves." And before we're tempted to say that that was just a religious act, we need to remember that the religious leaders in Jesus' day were also the political leaders, exercising their authority through the Sanhedrin, the ruling council.

That Christianity involves politics is evident from the presence of the bishops in the House of Lords. It was also recognised by the Lambeth Conference of 1988, which developed what have become known as the Five Marks of Mission, one of which is to “seek to transform unjust structures in society,” and that cannot be achieved without being political, as demonstrated by William Wilberforce, who as an MP, worked for the abolition of the slave trade.

But back to what happened in Parliament yesterday, when every living prime minister, with the exception of Boris Johnson, condemned the decision to cut the overseas aid budget, including John Major, David Cameron and Teresa May, who, a committed Christian, spelt out in the Commons that, as a consequence of the cuts, “fewer girls will be educated, more boys and girls will become slaves, more children go hungry and more of the poorest people in the world will die.” Charities, including the Red Cross, have calculated that these cuts will lead to 100,000 preventable deaths and millions facing malnutrition.

So how might we respond, since the decision has been made and anyway it was always out of our hands? One way is to support those charities whose work focuses on supporting those very countries which the Government is abandoning, such as the Red Cross, Save the Children, and Christian Aid. Another is to bear all this in mind next time you’re invited to the ballot box.

And remember, Paul was asking the Christians in Corinth to support the Christians in Rome – overseas aid indeed!

DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

Afternoon Tea

At the time of writing we are hopeful of all restrictions being lifted in late July and so having an opportunity to celebrate and look forward to a return to some of the activities that we undertook before the lockdowns of the past 18 months. In order to take advantage of the good weather (?) and light afternoons, we will be having an afternoon tea on Sunday 22nd August from 3-5pm in the gardens at St Mary's. This will be an opportunity to gather together for a social interaction and to catch up with those that we may not have seen for some time. Further details will follow in due course, but do put the date in your diary.

Macmillan Coffee Morning

Saturday 19th September 10.30-12noon

Many of you will remember Jan Mason who started the annual Macmillan Coffee mornings at St Mary's as she was thankful for the help and support she received from the Macmillan nurses. Despite all the challenges last year Merri managed to organize an alternative coffee morning and raised an amazing amount – over £600. This year we will return to a coffee morning in the hall, or possibly the garden depending on the weather, and I would be very grateful for donations of raffle prizes and cakes, biscuits and sausage rolls.

Beryl would be pleased to hear from anyone who could donate a raffle prize (0208 289 8097 or bbolton@ntlworld.com) and I would welcome offers of cakes and biscuits. It would be helpful if you could provide a list of ingredients that are in the cakes, biscuits, sausage rolls etc. – just in case anyone has an allergy to a particular food. If possible, please let me know if you are able to help in this way or, if you suddenly find you have time to do some baking, just turn up on the morning. My phone number is 0208 464 1609 and email andrew@hrbt.org

Thank you

Ann (Herbert)

What is Reader Ministry?

The office of Reader goes back to the third century when candidates for ordained ministry had first to be in minor orders including lectors or readers. In the Church of England, Reader Ministry in its present form was revived in 1866. Originally only men were allowed to be Readers, but the first women readers were licensed during the First World War. Readers are licensed by the Bishop to lead 'Services of the Word', including the traditional offices of Morning and Evening Prayer. However, as they are not ordained as priests they may not preside at the Eucharist (Communion), although they may assist with the service including preaching, conducting some parts of it and distributing the consecrated bread and wine. Readers are also licensed to administer home communions and to teach the faith. Some Readers, after additional training, are authorised by the Bishop to conduct funerals. The traditional robes a Reader is permitted to wear are cassock, surplice and blue scarf.

There are currently over 10,000 licensed Readers in the Church of England. In some Dioceses (such as Rochester and London) Readers are now renamed as Licensed Lay Ministers (LLM). Following the selection process, Southwark Readers train with St Augustine's College of Theology for the Certificate in Higher Education in Theology, Ministry and Mission. Much of the teaching is shared with students who are preparing for Ordained Ministry. Currently training comprises of two years with St Augustine's after which the Readers are licensed and then a further two years of post-licensing training.

The role of a Reader in the church is changing and there is a new vision for Reader ministry. This vision is entitled: 'Resourcing Sunday to Saturday Faith – Readers, Lay Ministers and Everyday Faith'. There are three main strands to this vision: teaching the faith, enabling mission in the everyday, and leading in church and society. This new vision springs from a major Church of England study published a few years ago called 'Setting God's People Free' and it seeks to bring about a change in the culture of the church – one which makes everyday faith central to what we do. In The Church of England General Synod in June this year, a very bold new strategy was put forward by the Archbishop of York. The vision is to set up 10,000 new worshipping communities by 2030 and to develop 3,000 churches as worshipping hubs for children and young people. The strategy says 'We sense we need a bold calling of lay leaders in their thousands to complement this movement, particularly in ministry with young people.' Readers and Licensed Lay Ministers are going to be absolutely critical to this new world for the church.

Reader ministry is just one lay ministry in our Diocese. New lay ministries being launched in our Diocese at present include Lay Pioneers, Family, Children and Youth Ministries.

More information can be found on the Diocesan Website by visiting <https://southwark.anglican.org/mission-ministry/ministry/discipleship-ministry/lay-ministries/>

THE CHILDREN'S SOCIETY

Hello, I'm Jon, I both volunteer and work for The Children's Society.

Firstly, a big THANK YOU. Over the past 20 years, St Francis of Assisi and St Mary of Nazareth have raised over £30,900 to support our work with the most vulnerable young people. We're extremely grateful for your support, especially over the past year, which is why I wanted to give an update how COVID 19 has impacted The Children's Society.

During the past year, The Children's Society has been busy recreating our services, to provide them in a digital world, for example by shipping equipment to young people, like laptops and smart phones to ensure those who didn't have them had a way to connect with our project workers.

I'm a volunteer befriender in the Refugee and Migrant team, which works with young people who have often fled war torn countries and are separated from their families.

They often have no support networks here and limited opportunities to make friends. I meet face to face with a young person to do an activity that we've chosen together, such as visiting a famous London landmark or museum, or playing games or sports.

This helps the young person get familiar with their new city. I personally was overwhelmed with my first visit to London as teenager, not knowing if you tap in or out of buses. Can you imagine how it would be for a young person from another country? These activities would help them get an understanding of British Culture, improve their English and build their confidence. However, since the lockdown, this has stopped.. We've replaced these with weekly catch-up calls, which were quite tricky, as it's more difficult to communicate on the phone across a language barrier. Fortunately, technology is a big helper and we've recreated things we were doing before by taking online tours of museums or zoos – something we can do at the same time.

I do hope I've given you an idea of how we've recreated our services during lockdown. We couldn't do so without the support from parishes like St Francis' and St Mary's. THANK YOU.

Despite the challenges we continue to walk towards the young people that society crosses the road to avoid. These young people have something within them, and that something is hope.

We counsel, support and campaign for the young people whose hopes and happiness are the most threatened by abuse, exploitation and neglect. We couldn't do that without the help of our supporters.

Thank you for your support once again, if you would like a collection box please contact David & Wendy Taylor or Christine Morton. It's convenient way to support us, collectively raising £1.2 million a year. We will be coming to a service in September where there will be an opportunity to find out more about the work of The Children's Society and to meet, hopefully in-person.

John Mann, Relationship Manager – The Children's Society

Children's Society Boxes

If you haven't already given your Box to Dave or Wendy Taylor for the annual count, please do so as soon as possible. Thank you.

St Francis and St Mary's Prayer Chain

Many people find they are given strength and peace of mind when they know that they, or their loved ones, are being prayed for. And the more people who are praying for someone, the better!

If you would like prayer for yourself, please call anyone on the chain below and they will pass a message on around the circle. If you like a name added to the intercessions list in our services, (which will be on-line as well as in-person) please state this when you make contact.

August

6th We have been shown God's glory in the face of Transfiguration Jesus. May we reflect his life in our deeds and words.

15th May we be strengthened by the Holy Spirit, to take like
Blessed Virgin Mary, the path of obedience leading to holiness.
Mary

24th Pray that by the power of the Holy Spirit, we may be
St Bartholomew strong in our witness of God's truth and goodness.

Times of Difficulty

Lord, I know that however fearful I may be, nothing can separate me from your love:

neither death nor life, angels nor principalities,
things present, nor things to come, evil powers, heights, depths,
nor anything else in all creation – nothing at all!

(Based on Romans 8: 31-9)

To Jesus our Healer

Lord Jesus, we place into your gentle hands those who are sick.
Ease their pain, and heal the damage done to them in body, mind or spirit.

Be present to them through the support of friends and in the care of medical workers.

Fill them with the warmth of your love now and always. Amen

September

14th
Holy Cross Pray that we are able to bear with patience and courage any cross of suffering laid upon us.

21st
St Matthew Give us grace, Lord, to deny the selfish pursuit of gain and the possessive love of wealth.

29th
St. Michael &
All Angels Everlasting God, grant that as your angels always serve you in heaven, so at your command they may help and defend us on earth.

Some Thoughts and Prayers

As we approach this new academic year we remember and pray for:-

- + Those seeking employment – maybe a first job., or due to dismissal during the lockdowns.
- + Those leaving home to begin a new life at college.
- + For teaching staff; those returning for a new term and those newly appointed, facing many challenges.
- + Children starting in pre-school and infants.
- + Those starting at Secondary Schools.

Holy Cross

Almighty God, as we stand at the foot of the cross of your Son, help us to see and know your love for us, so that in humility, love and joy we may place at his feet all that we have and all that we are, through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen

GOD WITH US

Just before the lockdown four of us visited Dulwich Picture Gallery and thoroughly enjoyed the Rembrandt exhibition and the way he painted the light of God shining in his paintings. After lunch we made our way back to the car to make our journey home, but to our dismay the front wheel was completely gashed by a sharp stone edging and it was flat. As all four of us are elderly, we felt slight panic at what would probably prove a long job to get out a mechanic, since neither of the men with us would be able to change a tyre.

To top it all it was now raining, and the gallery was closed. Suddenly a young man appeared out of nowhere and said, “Don’t worry, I’ll fix it for you”. He proceeded to change the very badly damaged wheel as we looked on, feeling suddenly very strange and calm. As he finished, he said he did not want any payment or thanks – he was so pleased to have been of help. We turned around and he was gone – he disappeared as suddenly as he had arrived.

My friend, Theresa looked at me and said, “That was an angel sent by God”. I realised that strange calm and wonderful feeling that we had felt was God with us in our hour of need and I will never forget our ‘angel’.

Growing in Love and Faith

The Bishops of Southwark's Certificate in Discipleship

Booking has now opened for the extremely popular Bishop's Certificate Course starting in September. There are five taught modules (5 weeks per module) and a final residential weekend module as follows:

- Following - about the New Testament
- Remembering - about the Old Testament
- Exploring - about the history of the church and what it means to be Anglican
- Believing - about what Christians believe
- Deepening - about living, serving and praying as a follower of Jesus
- Expecting - about putting your future into God's hands

The last two modules were new to the course that has just finished. In the 'Deepening Module', students look at the very first church described in Acts 2: 42-47 to see how they developed their disciplines, fellowship and service to all. It is based on the 'Holy Habits' series published by the Bible Reading Fellowship. The last module, 'Expecting', is a residential weekend at the Diocesan retreat house called Wychcroft in Surrey.

For 2021/2022, there are four options to participate.

- Tuesday evenings at Trinity House, near London Bridge
- Wednesday evenings online via 'Zoom'
- Thursday evenings online and
- Saturday mornings at Trinity House.

Some students enrol on the course as a stepping-off point for exploring their vocation and they have progressed to become Ordinands, Readers and other Lay Ministers. However, the overwhelming majority of people take it just for the joy of finding out more about their faith. There is no obligation to complete assignments. However, completing the course assignments is, at present, compulsory for those who wish to be Southwark Pastoral Assistants (SPA's). There is a special celebration service in Southwark Cathedral each year when Bishop Christopher presents all students with their certificates.

The cost of the course is £220 which includes the residential event at Wychcroft. For more information about the course, speak to Brian Griffiths our Reader who is also a course tutor, or Debbie Adams who has completed the course. To request an application form and a schedule of dates, email bishopscertificate@southwark.anglican.org or telephone the Diocesan Office on 020 7939 9400 and ask for the Discipleship and Ministry Department.

WE ARE ALL GUILTY

Well, I am. At times! Of complacency of leaving it to others to sort out!

BUT we do have a duty when it comes to the safeguarding of children OR vulnerable adults in the church.

There is a manual in our church vestibule entitled, 'A Safe Church', which is for reference by anyone and acts as a guide to safeguarding matters.

If you do have a genuine concern about such a matter, then you may wish to speak to Kay Mussard, our Safe Guarding Officer or one of the following; our Vicar, Rev. Hazel O'Sullivan or to one of the churchwardens.

HAVE YOU OR WILL YOU BE MAKING A WILL?

If so, please consider leaving a legacy to St. Marys.

Legacies we have had in the past have been a great blessing and encouragement and enabled us to carry out important work. It is helpful if the bequest is given without conditions so the PCC can use the money as they feel appropriate.

Please give this prayerful consideration.

To make a Will is one of the kindest things you can do so your wishes are known.
